HSBC Malta Foundation proudly supports 'Curious Beauty: An Alternative Costume Exhibition'

The HSBC Malta Foundation is delighted to be one of the main sponsors supporting 'Curious Beauty: An Alternative Costume Exhibition' hosted by Fondazzjoni Patrimonju Malti at the historic Palazzo Falson. The exhibition, which opened on April 14 and will run until June 16 2024, showcases a remarkable collection of historic costumes and accessories presented through contemporary art installations.

Under the artistic direction of Caroline Tonna and Francesca Balzan, the exhibition provides a unique view of Malta's rich cultural heritage within the walls of the medieval Palazzo Falson. The event is part of HSBC's ongoing commitment to supporting arts and culture in Malta, enriching the community's engagement with its history and artistic legacy.

Geoffrey Fichte, CEO of HSBC Bank Malta, stated, "We are thrilled to support the 'Curious Beauty' exhibition, which not only celebrates Malta's historical and artistic richness but also offers a creative platform for educational and cultural exchange. This partnership reflects our dedication to the preservation and appreciation of the arts as a vital part of community life."

Michael Lowell, CEO of Fondazzjoni Patrimonju Malti, commented, "HSBC's support is invaluable in bringing this exhibition to life. 'Curious Beauty' offers a fresh perspective on our historical assets, making them accessible and relevant to both locals and visitors alike. We are grateful for HSBC's commitment, and our other sponsors, which significantly enhances our ability to showcase Malta's unique heritage in an engaging way."

Visitors can enjoy a range of events, including exclusive tours, workshops for children, and prosecco tours by the artistic directors. These events are designed to deepen the appreciation of the exhibits and offer interactive experiences for all ages.

Tickets and a schedule of events are available at Palazzo Falson, with extended opening hours to accommodate interest. Booking for specific events is essential.
