Fid-dawl ta' dan, HSBC Continental Europe talbet lill-Bank biex jikseb awtorizzazzjoni mingħand l-azzjonisti tiegħu li permezz ta' tali awtorizzazzjoni, l-Bank ikun jista' jiżvela nformazzjoni, inkluż informazzjoni sensittiva li għadha mhux ippublikata li tista' taffetwa l-prezz tal-ishma, lill-offerenti bona fide, lil min ser ikun ser jitrasferixxi bona fide u lill-konsulenti rispettivi tagħhom in konnessjoni ma' transazzjoni potenzjali li tinvvoli substantial shareholding fil-Kumpanija. F'dan l-announcement, il-Kumpanija kompliet tħabbar li għal dan il-għan, u konformi mal-Capital Markets Rules, kien ser ikun jeħtieg li l-Bank ila qqa' laqgħa generali straordinarja.

Introduction

By means of a company announcement dated 11 September 2024, the Company announced that it had been informed by HSBC Holdings plc ("HSBC Holdings") that HSBC Holdings would be undertaking a strategic review of its indirect 70.03% shareholding in the Company. Subsequently, on the 28 November 2024 the Company announced that it had been advised by HSBC Continental Europe, its majority shareholder, that HSBC Holdings has been contacted by a number of parties who expressed an interest in its shareholding, requesting to conduct due diligence prior to confirming such interest. In this respect, HSBC Continental Europe requested the Bank to seek authorisation from its shareholders as would enable the Bank to furnish information, including unpublished price-sensitive information, to bona fide offeror(s), the corresponding bona fide transferor and their respective advisers in connection with a potential transaction involving a substantial shareholding in the Company. In the said announcement, the Company further announced that for such purpose, and in accordance with the Capital Market Rules, the Bank would be required to convene an extraordinary general meeting.

For the purpose of Capital Markets Rule 5.174, a substantial shareholding refers to the entitlement to exercise or control the exercise of ten percent (10%) or more of the votes able to be cast at general meetings or the entitlement to appoint a majority of directors on the board of directors ("Substantial Shareholding").

The Board of Directors of the Company considers it to be in the best interest of the Company for the benefit of all its shareholders to obtain the express authorization of the general meeting for the purposes of disclosing information, which may include unpublished price sensitive information, to bona fide offeror(s) and the bona fide transferor in connection with a potential transaction involving a Substantial Shareholding.

Accordingly, the Board of Directors of the Company have convened the EGM to grant the shareholders the opportunity to consider, and if deemed fit, approve an ordinary resolution as would allow the Company to disclose information to bona fide offeror(s), the bona fide transferor in the context of a potential transaction involving a Substantial Shareholding.

Further details on the proposed ordinary resolution being submitted before the extraordinary general meeting of the Company are provided hereunder.
